Division No.:

PETITION FOR DAMAGES AND BREACH OF CONTRACT

COMES NOW Plaintiffs BLACK LUXURY ENTERTAINMENT, LLC, ANTOINE MEEKS, ROCKHOUSE ENTERTAINMENT and ORLANDO WATSON
 (hereinafter collectively referred to as, the “Plaintiff(s)”), by and through their attorneys Thayer
 L. Weaver, Jr. and TLW & Associates, LLC, and for their cause of action against Defendants
 RICK ROSS TOURING, LLC, a Florida limited liability company, and William Leonard Roberts, II, as an individual professionally known as Rick Ross (hereinafter collectively referred to as, the “Defendant(s)”), state, allege, and otherwise avers as follows:

1. Plaintiffs are concert promoters doing business in the City of St. Louis, State of Missouri.

2. Defendant Rick Ross Touring, LLC is a Florida Limited Liability company that represents and is the agent of the Defendant Rick Ross (defined below)(hereinafter referred to as, “Defendant Rick Ross Touring”). Defendant Rick Ross Touring, as the agent and representative of Defendant Rick Ross (defined below), contracted for the performance services of Defendant Rick Ross (defined below) in St. Louis County, State of Missouri.

3. Defendant William Leonard Roberts, II, professionally known as Rick Ross, is a recording artist performing and doing business throughout the United States, including St. Louis County and the world at-large (hereinafter collectively referred to as, “Defendant Rick Ross”).

4. Jurisdiction and venue are proper in this court in that the Defendants contracted to do business in the city of St. Louis, State of Missouri, the subject contract was entered in the city of St. Louis and the Defendant Rick Ross was to perform in the city of St. Louis, State of Missouri in accordance with the contract.

5. On or about October 21, 2019, Plaintiffs, jointly and severally, entered into an Artist Engagement Contract with Defendant Rick Ross Touring, LLC for the services of Defendant Rick Ross to perform at the Pageant, located at 6161 Delmar Blvd., St. Louis, Missouri on January 11, 2020 (hereinafter referred to as, the “Contract”).

6. The Contract required Plaintiffs to pay Defendants Sixty Thousand Dollars ($60,000.00) in two (2) equal installments. The first payment was due on October 22, 2019 and the second payment was due upon Artist’s arrival (See Contract attached hereto as Exhibit 1).

7. On October 21, 2019, Plaintiff paid Defendant Rick Ross Touring Thirty Thousand Dollars via wire transfer in accordance with the terms of the Contract (“Payment”).

8. Defendant Rick Ross Touring accepted Payment.

9. The total consideration paid to Defendant was in the amount of Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000.00) and in return for this sum Defendants agreed to perform in accordance with the Contract.

10. Defendant Rick Ross failed to appear in accordance with the Contract and Plaintiffs notified Defendant Rick Ross Touring of this breach the Contract.

11. Plaintiffs performed in accordance with the Contract.

12. Defendants have failed and refused to remedy breach of contract, as a result whereof Plaintiffs were obliged to expend money in preparation of the Contracted concert at their own expense.

13. In reliance on the agreed upon Contract, Plaintiff incurred additional expenses as follows:

a. Cost of Venue	-	$ 6,000.00
b. Artist travel and hotel accommodation	-	$ 3,300.00
c. Marketing and Promotions	-	$ 4,100.00
d. Production Costs	-	$25,000.00

14. As a result of Defendants' breach of Contract, Plaintiff has been damaged in an amount that exceeds $74,400.00.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs Black Luxury Entertainment, LLC, Antoine Meeks, Rockhouse Entertainment and Orlando Watson demand judgment in their favor and against Defendants Rick Ross Touring, LLC, and William Leonard Roberts, II, professionally known as RICK ROSS, for damages for a sum in excess of $74,400.00, plus interest, court costs and attorney's fees, and whatever further relief this Court deems just.

Respectfully submitted,

Directions to Officer Making Return on Service of Summons

A copy of the summons and a copy of the motion must be served on each defendant/respondent. If any defendant/respondent refuses to receive the copy of the summons and motion when offered, the return shall be prepared accordingly so as to show the offer of the officer to deliver the summons and motion and the defendant's/respondent's refusal to receive the same.

Service shall be made: (1) On Individual. On an individual, including an infant or incompetent person not having a legally appointed guardian, by delivering a copy of the summons and motion to the individual personally or by leaving a copy of the summons and motion at the individual's dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of the family over 15 years of age who permanently resides with the defendant/respondent, or by delivering a copy of the summons and petition to an agent authorized by appointment or required by law to receive service of process; (2) On Guardian. On an infant or incompetent person who has a legally appointed guardian, by delivering a copy of the summons and motion to the guardian personally; (3) On Corporation, Partnership or Other Unincorporated Association. On a corporation, partnership or unincorporated association, by delivering a copy of the summons and motion to an officer, partner, or managing or general agent, or by leaving the copies at any business office of the defendant/respondent with the person having charge thereof or by delivering copies to its registered agent or to any other agent authorized by appointment or required by law to receive service of process; (4) On Public or Quasi-Public Corporation or Body. Upon a public, municipal, governmental or quasi-public corporation or body in the case of a county, to the mayor or city clerk or city attorney in the case of a city, to the chief executive officer in the case of any public, municipal, governmental, or quasi-public corporation or body or to any person otherwise lawfully so designated.

Service may be made by an officer or deputy authorized by law to serve process in civil actions within the state or territory where such service is made.

Service may be made in any state or territory of the United States. If served in a territory, substitute the word "territory" for the word "state."

The officer making the service must swear an affidavit before the clerk, deputy clerk, or judge of the court of which the person is an officer or other person authorized to administer oaths. This affidavit must state the time, place, and manner of service, the official character of the affiant, and the affiant's authority to serve process in civil actions within the state or territory where service is made.

Service must be made less than 10 days nor more than 30 days from the date the defendant/respondent is to appear in court. The return should be made promptly, and in any event so that it will reach the Missouri court within 30 days after service.

Directions to Officer Making Return on Service of Summons

A copy of the summons and a copy of the motion must be served on each defendant/respondent. If any defendant/respondent refuses to receive the copy of the summons and motion when offered, the return shall be prepared accordingly so as to show the offer of the officer to deliver the summons and motion and the defendant's/respondent's refusal to receive the same.

Service shall be made: (1) On Individual. On an individual, including an infant or incompetent person not having a legally appointed guardian, by delivering a copy of the summons and motion to the individual personally or by leaving a copy of the summons and motion at the individual's dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of the family over 15 years of age who permanently resides with the defendant/respondent, or by delivering a copy of the summons and petition to an agent authorized by appointment or required by law to receive service of process; (2) On Guardian. On an infant or incompetent person who has a legally appointed guardian, by delivering a copy of the summons and motion to the guardian personally; (3) On Corporation, Partnership or Other Unincorporated Association. On a corporation, partnership or unincorporated association, by delivering a copy of the summons and motion to an officer, partner, or managing or general agent, or by leaving the copies at any business office of the defendant/respondent with the person having charge thereof or by delivering copies to its registered agent or to any other agent authorized by appointment or required by law to receive service of process; (4) On Public or Quasi-Public Corporation or Body. Upon a public, municipal, governmental or quasi-public corporation or body in the case of a county, to the mayor or city clerk or city attorney in the case of a city, to the chief executive officer in the case of any public, municipal, governmental, or quasi-public corporation or body or to any person otherwise lawfully so designated.

Service may be made by an officer or deputy authorized by law to serve process in civil actions within the state or territory where such service is made.

Service may be made in any state or territory of the United States. If served in a territory, substitute the word "territory" for the word "state."

The office making the service must swear an affidavit before the clerk, deputy clerk, or judge of the court of which the person is an officer or other person authorized to administer oaths. This affidavit must state the time, place, and manner of service, the official character of the affiant, and the affiant's authority to serve process in civil actions within the state or territory where service is made.

Service must be made less than 10 days nor more than 30 days from the date the defendant/respondent is to appear in court. The return should be made promptly, and in any event so that it will reach the Missouri court within 30 days after service.

Directions to Officer Making Return on Service of Summons

A copy of the summons and a copy of the motion must be served on each defendant/respondent. If any defendant/respondent refuses to receive the copy of the summons and motion when offered, the return shall be prepared accordingly so as to show the offer of the officer to deliver the summons and motion and the defendant's/respondent's refusal to receive the same.

Service shall be made: (1) On Individual. On an individual, including an infant or incompetent person not having a legally appointed guardian, by delivering a copy of the summons and motion to the individual personally or by leaving a copy of the summons and motion at the individual's dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of the family over 15 years of age who permanently resides with the defendant/respondent, or by delivering a copy of the summons and petition to an agent authorized by appointment or required by law to receive service of process; (2) On Guardian. On an infant or incompetent person who has a legally appointed guardian, by delivering a copy of the summons and motion to the guardian personally; (3) On Corporation, Partnership or Other Unincorporated Association. On a corporation, partnership or unincorporated association, by delivering a copy of the summons and motion to an officer, partner, or managing or general agent, or by leaving the copies at any business office of the defendant/respondent with the person having charge thereof or by delivering copies to its registered agent or to any other agent authorized by appointment or required by law to receive service of process; (4) On Public or Quasi-Public Corporation or Body. Upon a public, municipal, governmental or quasi-public corporation or body in the case of a county, to the mayor or city clerk or city attorney in the case of a city, to the chief executive officer in the case of any public, municipal, governmental, or quasi-public corporation or body or to any person otherwise lawfully so designated.

Service may be made by an officer or deputy authorized by law to serve process in civil actions within the state or territory where such service is made.

Service may be made in any state or territory of the United States. If served in a territory, substitute the word "territory" for the word "state."

The office making the service must swear an affidavit before the clerk, deputy clerk, or judge of the court of which the person is an officer or other person authorized to administer oaths. This affidavit must state the time, place, and manner of service, the official character of the affiant, and the affiant's authority to serve process in civil actions within the state or territory where service is made.

Service must be made less than 10 days nor more than 30 days from the date the defendant/respondent is to appear in court. The return should be made promptly, and in any event so that it will reach the Missouri court within 30 days after service.
